17,931,000 Persons Visited Illinois State Parks in '65

In 1965, for the first time, three Illinois state parks attracted over 1,000,000 visitors each, James W. McMillen, state parks and memorials supervisor, reported this week.

Total attendance for state parks, memorials and conservation areas was 17,931,541, a new record. The total 1964 attendance was 16,975,000 persons.

For the second consecutive year, Illinois Beach State Park with its swimming, nature area and lodge, had the largest attendance. This park along the shore of Lake Michigan attracted 1,472,029, compared to 1,211,343 in 1964.

Starved Rock was the second most popular park and its scenic beauty drew 1,133,116 visitors. Historically famous Lincoln's New Salem State Park, with its reconstructed Lincoln village, brought people from all over the world to the number of 1,047,305.

The State of Illinois, through the Department of Business and Economic Development's Division of Tourism, will be represented statewide for the first time at six travel shows in the Midwest. This also is the first time Illinois has participated in out-of-state travel shows with an exhibit designed to attract tourists.

The shows, scheduled through April 3, will be in Chicago, Detroit, St. Louis, Des Moines and Indianapolis. Displays will be manned at all times by personnel who are authorities on tourism in Illinois. Literature on the state's many tourist attractions will be available. Members of the state's 10 tourism regions also will participate, some with displays of their own and some through the division's display.

Traffic Deaths Up in State

January traffic deaths totaled 187 in Illinois, according to provisional reports released this week by the Division of Highways and the State Highway Police. This is an increase of 15% over the 163 deaths in the same month last year.

Late reports and delayed deaths have not changed the November fatality total of 224 but have increased the December fatality total to 236. The death toll for 1965, which now stands at 2248, represents an increase of two per cent over the 2207 for 1964.

ITR Report for 1965 Shows $115,756 Loss

The annual report for 1965 for Illinois Terminal Railroad Co. showed this week that the St. Louis-based railroad operated at a loss of $115,756 for the year, but A. E. Anderson, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, said it expects to operate at a profit this year.

Playing a role in this year's anticipated profit is the recent purchase of 360 new freight cars at a cost of over $4,500,000. The ITR revenue in 1965 totaled $9,277,077, up from $8,890,575 in 1964. For the final quarter of 1965, the net income was $83,712, compared with a loss of $44,441 in the same period of 1964. Revenues in the fourth quarter of 1965 amounted to $2,403,552, compared with $2,407,571 in 1964.

He is the fourth Democrat to be holding petitions for the office so far. The others are George Musso of Edwardsville, former sheriff and current county treasurer; George Ramach of Madison, chief deputy sheriff, and former Madison police officer; and Frank Harris, a Granite City police officer.

Bowman, 32, has 13 years experience as a police officer, including nine years with the Alton police department. He was born and educated in Alton and lives there with his wife and four children.

Quad-Cityans Swarm To Get Measles Shots

Hundreds of Quad-Cityans are taking the advice of state Department of Public Health and getting immunized against measles. The state has predicted a measles epidemic this spring unless preventive measures are taken.

The state is advising parents to have preventive vaccine administered to children who have never had measles. A local physician said that for those who have not, gamma globulin may be given up to nine days after exposure to prevent infection. The gamma globulin under such a procedure is good only for six weeks, however, and other immunization should then be undertaken.

Women Demos Elect, Plan Installation

The Granite City Democratic Women's Club elected Mrs. Bernadine Hagnauer as its new president Monday night in a meeting at the Rose Bowl. A business meeting followed the election and plans were discussed for a dinner meeting for officers installation at the Rose Bowl on March 9. Club members were urged to attend a Democratic women's meeting, Feb. 28 at Glen Carbon at which Mrs. Paul Douglas, wife of the U. S. Senator, is to be guest of honor.

Mrs. Lulu Mills, 2194 Cottage avenue, is one of three nurses of the East Side Health District in East St. Louis who have been notified of their dismissal, effective April 1, following an organized move by the district's 15 nurses to secure an increase in salary.

Dr. John Gregorowicz, director of the health district, said the dismissals are not due to the increase in salary, but to the movement headed by the three women who have been notified of their dismissal. He said the dismissals were due to economy and not to retaliatory measures.

Savings Bond Interest

An increase of four-tenths of one per cent in the interest rate for Series E and H government savings bonds, effective Dec. 1, was announced yesterday in Washington by President Johnson.

The new interest rate will be 4.15%, compared to the former rate of 3.75%. The higher rate applies to bonds purchased since Dec. 1, and is not retroactive.

The increase is designed to help prevent inflation by boosting the sale of bonds. H. D. Karandjoff, local banker and chairman of the county's bond sales committee, is vacationing and could not be reached for comment.

Goofball Study by SIU-SW to be Topic of 4-Day Meeting

A four-day national institute on "Amphetamine Drug Abuse" will get under way Monday at Southern Illinois University, Southern Campus.

Sponsored by the university's Delinquency Study and Youth Development Project and the President's Committee on Juvenile Delinquency and Crime, the meeting is being supported by a $21,000 grant from the Office of Juvenile Delinquency and Crime Control.

The Institute is the outgrowth of a three-year nationwide study by SIU of the dangerous and growing misuse, especially by teenagers, of the drugs commonly known as "pep pills," "benzies" and "time capsules."

Activities begin with registration Monday at 4 p.m. at Sunset Hill Holiday Inn on Route 157, followed by dinner at 6:30 and a welcoming address by Delyte W. Morris, SIU president. The first technical session of the Institute will be held that evening.

Regional Meet On Increasing Explorer Units

G. H. Sternberg, member of the executive committee of Region Seven, Boy Scouts of America, will attend a special meeting on the Exploring program at the O'Hare Inn, Chicago, Friday.

The meeting, called by August P. "Hook," president of Hook Drug, Inc., Indianapolis, is to discuss Exploring in Region seven, which includes Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan. "Representatives from these states are concerned with extending this program for high school age boys," Sternberg said, "and the meeting will deal with such plans."

Sternberg, finance chairman and past president of the Cahokia Mound Council, will take to the Exploring program for the organization of 15 new Explorer posts throughout the council area. "The greatest period of growth in Exploring is in the field of Exploring," Sternberg said. "The council's 'Years of Achievement' goals call for more emphasis in this phase of the scout program."

Specialty Posts
"Many of the new posts to be organized will be specialty posts. These offer a high school boy an opportunity to participate in an organization where he can pursue a field of interest to him, with other boys his age who have the same interest," Sternberg said.

"These Explorer posts cover such fields as law enforcement, forestry, marketing, auto mechanics, government, medicine, banking, electronics, communications, radio, chemistry, international service and practical arts to name a few. A group of boys 14 to 18 years old may have a specialty post."

At present, no funds are available for a park of any kind, since the state has made no allotment for development, and the Federal government also has made no provisions.

Barron said that land sought by the society for a 350-acre park would take in the area intended for construction of complete new port facilities in the northern section of the Chain of Rocks canal. "In the first place," Barron said, "the port district does not own the land and could have no part in relinquishing any land whatever."

Kiwanis Valentine Party Fetes Wives

A Valentine party and ladies night were combined Monday, when a group of Kiwanis entertained their wives at the Rose Bowl restaurant. The pledge of allegiance was led by Kiwanis President Peter J. Jellen. Melvin T. Gillie offered the invocation.

Dinner was served by candlelight with red and white floral arrangements and tiny Valentine hearts on the tables. Mrs. Wilbur Aggoner was in charge of the decorations.

Recently installed members, Donald Russell and Bonard MacLennan, and the latter's wife were introduced by the club executive. Gifts were presented to each lady by Gillie, who also awarded favors. Mrs. Herbert R. Schanot, Mrs. Waggoner, Mrs. Marvin Barnes, Mrs. Alvin Gross and Mrs. Allen Jessen.

A serenade of favorite piano selections was performed by Clarence E. Cushman of Highland. The pianist also accompanied soloist, Major Gordon Wead of Scott Air Force Base, near Belleville, and a native of Sweden, who sang two Swedish folk songs and the Kern-Hammerstein ballad "All The Things You Are."

Freeman Wolfe expressed the club's appreciation to the entertainers.

Those going to the orphange were Mrs. Mary Ann Andre, Earl Parsons, Mrs. Evelyn Line, Mrs. Ruth Ann Long and Mrs. Dorothy Line. Those visiting the nursing home were Mrs. Dorothy Line, Brenda Fultz, Judy Johnisse, Sharon Fultz, Mrs. Julia Dant and Mrs. Kay Jeff.

hopes for them." The administration is now inspecting new bids and recommending purchases, he added.

He also commented on a letter from J. W. Eader of St. Louis, representative for Illinois schools on actions of Congress affecting schools.

He said the federal budgetary commission is ready to recommend a sharp reduction on federal aid to federally impacted areas. The Madison district has about 150 students whose parents work at military installations, and the district has received $10,000 to $15,000 per year in operating funds which otherwise might have to come from property taxes.

Brown added that the federal government is seeking to cut back on its hot lunch and milk programs.

Purchase Supplies

The board authorized the superintendent to obtain bids and cost estimates on textbooks, supplies, library books, visual aids, equipment and other supplies for the 1966-67 school year and to make purchases on a basis of quality and price.

He also was authorized to purchase necessary equipment and materials to implement Project Unity.

A resignation was accepted from Mrs. Pansy Hall, second grade teacher at Blair school, for family reasons, effective when a replacement is found. Mrs. Blanche White, a cook at Harris school, was placed on the disability list at the end of her sick leave; she has a back injury.

The accounting firm of C. J. Schlosser of Alton was employed to audit 1965-66 district accounts. The Junior Dramatics club of Madison and Venice was authorized to use the Tumbler gym for a 2 1/2-hour talent show on March 5.

A monthly report of treasurer Raymond Sienkiewski showed Feb. 1 cash balances of $183,490 in the educational fund, $18,885 and January balance of $22,397 in the bonds and interest fund for a total of $221,768.

The board also approved January salaries of $56,732, adult education salaries of $37,731 and withdrawal deductions of $23,731 for a total of $80,969, and January bills of $69,433 from the educational fund, $50,808 from the building fund and $4438 from the lunch fund.

five cents could be levied to support its operations. However, Birtly said the tax would have to be approved in a referendum.

A resolution was adopted by the board to ask the county to obtain a lease or grant of fee-owned land in Chouteau township for expansion of the Lewis & Clark state park in connection with the federal Lewis & Clark Trail commemoration.

Road Right-of-Way

The board accepted dedication of 29.45 acres of Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus owned land as right-of-way for a new road, County Highway 48, in exchange for 6.79 acres of county land adjacent to the campus.

In connection with complaints on the number of standing committees, committee meetings and per diem for board members, Wilford Suesen, rules committee chairman, asked other committee chairmen to fill out and return questionnaires to help determine if county functions could be performed efficiently with fewer meetings.

At the opening of the board meeting, a letter submitted by the Madison County Taxpayers Association objecting to discrepancies in per diem payments to board members, noting that holders receive $15 a day and newly elected members receive $20.

The association preferred that per diem remain at $15 for all, but if not, that all should receive $20. It noted that in 1960 per diem was raised from $10 to $15 and an escalation in the amount was started. Landolt remarked that the students' attorney has ruled that "everything is in order."

Courthouse Holidays

The board agreed to close the courthouse offices on the following holidays: Feb. 22 (Washington's birthday), April 8 (Good Friday), May 20 (Memorial Day), June 14 (primary election), July 4 (Independence Day), Sept. 5 (Labor Day), Nov. 8 (Veterans Day), Nov. 24 and 25 (Thanksgiving week), Dec. 26 (Christmas observance) and Jan. 2 (New Year's observance).

Removal from the county highway system were Broadway streets and Sixth street in Madison from Madison to McCambridge avenues.

An objection to a proposal to increase the county liquor license from $300 to $500 to provide more funds for the sheriff's department was raised by C. F. Krueberg of Moro township, who said it would force many small tavern operators to close with the result that the county would lose money.

Monthly reports showed 42 patients in the county tuberculosis sanatorium on Jan. 31, an increase of seven during the month, and a daily average of 39 in the county nursing home.

ideas for an Ecumenical Center which would serve as a focal point for religious life on the campus.

"From this meeting," he continued, "resulted the formation of a university Religious Council, an autonomous and entirely self-supporting organization which functions with SIU's cooperation. It is this group which has provided the leadership which is about to make a dream a reality."

The new Religious Center, for which a public campaign for funds is now under way, has been planned by Edmund, Obata and Kassarbaum of St. Louis so that it readily can be expanded as the need arises. Enrollment at the university's new campus is expected to increase from the present 7000 to 18,000 within a few years.

Goal Is $275,000

Goal of the campaign is $275,000, of which $200,000 already had been pledged by five members of the Religious Council. Another $50,000 in individual contributions has been pledged.

Wilkins said in his speech that while religious groups "have thrived on university campuses for many years, they have for the most part operated in separate facilities, and only in rare instances have they shared common quarters. Such cooperation is considered important at SIU not only because of economy, but most particularly because of the heightened ecumenical movement which churchmen feel is leaning strongly toward a mood of merger, federation and a spirit of unity."

"One of the finest things which a religious center can contribute is to assist in meeting the spiritual needs of the students," Wilkins added. "We have today an important problem for a youth which must be solved largely through satisfaction of its spiritual needs. Many confusions develop in the youthful mind in this complex world in which he lives as a result of the great explosion of knowledge and the impact of technology."

Fuchs III, Doubtful for Mat Sectional at GCHS

The 27th sectional wrestling tournament at Granite City high school will be held Saturday at 1 p.m., with 96 of the best downstate prep wrestlers in competition for the right to advance to the state meet Feb. 26.

The wrestlers will be competing for the sectional championships and runner-up spots in 12 weight classes, with 24 advancing to the state meet in Evanston.

Along with the individual rivalry, there will be strong team competition, with 22 other schools trying to upset powerful Granite City.

In the 26 years the sectional has been held, the Warriors have won 21 times and finished second four times. They currently have a 12-year winning streak going.

But one of the strongest hopes of the Warriors hinges on Bill Fuchs, last year's state runner-up in the 96-pound class.

As of Wednesday afternoon, Granite City coach Bill "Red" Schmitt said that it was doubtful if the junior will be able to wrestle on Saturday.

Headache and Nausea
Fuchs left school Wednesday complaining of a headache and nausea. Schmitt said the warrior wrestler may have a sinus infection.

"We'll know more about Bill late Thursday," Schmitt added. The loss of Fuchs would impair the Warriors' chances of successfully defending their state championship.

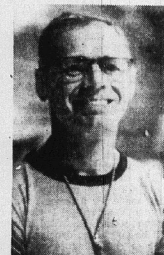

Last year's state champion in the 154-pound class, Ben Cooper of Stephen Decatur, heads the list of sectional runners. This year, Cooper has moved up a class and is competing at 165 pounds.

Fuchs was last year's 95-pound champion in the sectional. Other runners-up in the 1965 sectional who will be returning include Henry Medley of East St. Louis, Lincoln (103) and Curd Alexander of Edwardsville (112).

Jim Valicoff of Granite City will be the only other sectional champion returning. In 1965, he won the 136-pound title, but will wrestle in the 145-pound class this year.

Several qualifying wrestlers have outstanding individual records this season. Fuchs leads the list with a 31-0 mark.

Other Warriors are Joe Martinez, 18-2; Mike Reynolds, 26-4; Lester Robertson, 21-6; Brian Lamew, 18-5; Mike Andria, 30-1; Jim Valicoff, 27-2; and Dewey Bell, 23-8. Ray Hinkins and Randy Roastio of Granite City sports 15-15-2 and 7-5 records.

Fuchs (31-0) is favored in the 95-pound class, while Chuck Davis (16-3-1) of Quincy CBC is a strong contender.

In the 103-pound class, Jim Hunt of Stephen Decatur holds the best state with a 22-1 mark. Granite City's Lester Robertson (18-2) and Ric Acree of Jacksonville (13-5) are possible contenders.

Curd Alexander of Edwardsville (23-1) and Mike Reynolds of Granite City (26-4) are the top wrestlers in the 112-pound weight division. Alexander defeated Reynolds in the Wood River district last Saturday for the championship.

Toss-up in 120-Pound Class
The 120-pound class is a toss-up, with several matmen possessing strong records. Roger Spaulding of Jacksonville is 18-3; Les Egbert of Carmi 14-1; John Cogan of Vandalia 15-1-1; and Lester Robertson of Granite City 21-6 on the season.

A battle between the 1965 third-place winner, Roger Rice of Edwardsville, and fourth-place winner, Elwyn Heard of Eisenhower, may develop in the 127-pound class. Rice is currently 22-2 while Heard is 20-0 on the season. Both won their district championships.

Mike Andria of Granite City is favored in the 135-pound division, with a season slate of 30-1. James Cook of Eisenhower is 21-0 and Dave Brownridge of East St. Louis also is a contender.

Hilltops Best 136-Pounder
At 136 pounds, Jacksonville's Wes Hilltops (20-1) holds a better season record than any of his seven opponents. Granite City's Jim Valicoff (27-2) and Roxana's Elbe Milazzo (19-1) will probably be the strongest wrestlers in the 145-pound class. Valicoff is the Wood River district champion, while Milazzo was runner-up there.

Outstanding wrestlers have qualified for the 154-pound event. Bob Pitchford of Wood River won that district's championship. Bob Dennis of Jacksonville (20-0) won that district, and Londaie Beasley of Stephen Decatur (15-3-1) won the Decatur MacArthur district title. Ben Cooper, defending state champion in the 154-pound class, has qualified for the 160-pound class with a 22-0 record and the championship from the MacArthur district; he is from Stephen Decatur.

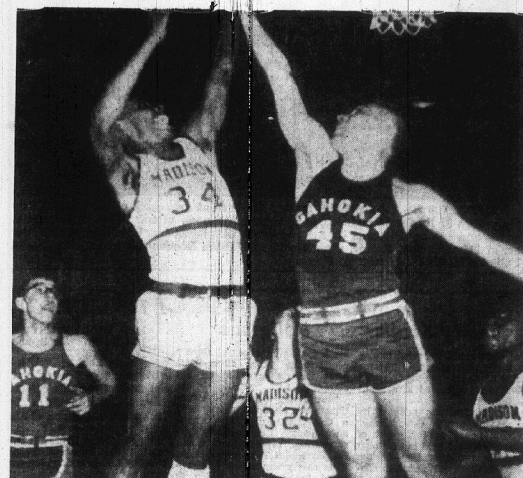

Jim Duncan of Wood River and Andy Roberts (11-1-1) of Decatur MacArthur, both winners of district titles in the 180-pound class, are favored in that division.

The 1965 sectional runner-up, Terry Scott (21-1) of Quincy and Hartman (15-5) hold the edge in the heavyweight class, with Granite City's Dewey Bell (23-9) remaining a darkhorse for the sectional crown.

Top schools in contention for the sectional title are Granite City, winner of the Wood River district; Decatur MacArthur, winner of its district; East St. Louis, winner of the Carbondale district; and Jacksonville, winner of its district meet.

Warriors Lead Qualifiers
Granite City leads the tournament entries with 10 wrestlers competing, including four district champions and six runners-up. East St. Louis is next with three, and Madison has two.

MID-AIR MEETING. Two of this area's top prep basketball scorers meet in mid-air at Madison as Dale Turner (34) lets go of a jump shot and Cahokia's Mark Catlett (45) reaches to block the shot. Cahokia nipped Madison 66-65 and took the Midwestern Conference championship.

Pre-Tourney Tests Face Quad-City Cage Teams

A "crippled" Granite City team will walk into the den of an improving basketball team at Alton Friday evening.

Coach Ralph Sackett's crew has been hit by sickness and injuries in practice this week. Jim Stuart, a starting Warrior guard, has been ruled out of competition for the remainder of the season with infectious mononucleosis, and Bob Malotki, the sixth man on the GC team, is undergoing tests for a strep throat.

"Stuart's out for the season and Malotki for a week, maybe more," said Sackett. To add to the problems, junior

"They're an improving club, although their record does not show it," said Granite City coach Ralph Sackett.

Venice vs. Lincoln
Meanwhile, at Venice, the Red Devils will face their toughest test all season Friday when they tangle with Lincoln of East St. Louis.

The Lincoln quintet gained fame last weekend by knocking off Duplo 79-75 in an overtime contest.

Venice will counter with a scoring attack led by Percy Dillon and Rich Essington. To supplement the daring duo, Bill Ohendorf has a bench of others capable of hitting in double figures.

Madison will travel to Bethalto Friday for a rematch with the Eagles. The Trojans beat Bethalto 75-54 in their first encounter.

Cold Third Period, Foul Trouble Stop Trojans; Turner, Lusk Sparkle

A cold five-point third period stopped Madison from beating Cahokia and tying for the Midwestern Conference basketball championship at Madison last night. The Trojans lost, 66-65.

From the opening tip, Madison controlled the game behind the sparkling performances of area scoring leader Dale Turner and the nearly invaluable Paul Lusk. The Turner-Lusk scoring combination clicked for 18 of Madison's 22 points in the first period as Cahokia fell behind by a 22-15 score.

The Trojans put together another productive period and outscored the Comanches 19-15 in the second quarter to hold a 41-30 halftime lead. Once again Turner and Lusk clicked; Turner netted six points, Paul Lusk had six and sophomore Gary Lusk six.

With the score at 43-35, Madison, the officials called the third foul on the older Lusk, Paul Lusk, when 6:36 remained in the third quarter.

Fourth Personal on Lusk
One minute and eight seconds later, Lusk committed his fourth personal foul of the game. Madison coach Earl McClanahan pulled him out of the game to protect him from fouling out, and the Trojans continued their attack.

One minute later, Gary Lusk twisted his ankle and was taken to the dressing room. This left the Trojans with only three regular players, Turner, Ron Burt and Steve Geroff — in the game, and no player over 6'1".

The taller Cahokia quintet took advantage of this and outscored the Trojans 17-5 to take a 47-46 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Personal fouls took their toll on both teams during the final period with both Paul Lusk and Turner fouling out for the Trojans and Ken Hilliard, Ezra Silas and Alan Taylor fouling out for Cahokia.

Stretches Lead
The Comanches stretched their lead to five points, 53-48, and Gary Lusk came back into the game. His brother Paul hit on a pair of free throws before fouling out his fifth personal with 5:21 on the clock.

A minute later, another injury hit the Madison quintet, as Geroff hurt his left leg after landing hard on a rebound attempt.

Once again the Trojans were caught short in the height department and Cahokia's Mark Catlett hit on two quick free points in that game between the two teams.

Madison is much stronger now with the full time services of Paul Lusk, a 6'3" senior, who excels in rebounding and accurate field goal shooting.

While none of the Quad-City teams is still involved in a showdown for a conference championship, all face still contests before the season ends, regional and sectional tournament play, which will begin Feb. 24.

"We feel the contest has grown with the full time services of a completely unfair to our student body and team due to comparative size of our schools."

The 1958 game ended in a tie, the highest over the years, and we sincerely hope to continue in that respect," Dant and Pickering said.

A year ago, members of the Granite City school staff considered ending football ties between the two schools, but dropped the idea as possibly being "unneighborly." It was noted that a large school playing a smaller school has "everything to lose and nothing to gain," since it receives little credit for winning and ridicule for losing.

Madison teams have played well against Granite City, and the Trojans won a basketball clash between the two schools this winter. But the 2000-70 enrollment differential has given the Warriors a decided football advantage in recent years; they won 12-0 in 1964 and 26-15 last year.

Other results during competition beginning in 1929 show 29 victories for Granite City and five for Madison, the last a 2-67 decision in 1957.

Dal Close to Inking Cardinal Contract

Dal Maxwell, Granite City's City during spring training. However, Mrs. Maxwell and the two oldest children may visit ready to sign his 1966 contract with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Although the signing has not taken place, Maxwell said he has talked with Cardinal General Manager Bob Howsam and, from all indications, the signing will take place soon.

"We've agreed pretty closely on the major things, but there are still a few details that need to be worked out," Maxwell said. "I'm pretty well satisfied with the contract, and I might add that I got a very nice increase in salary," said the Granite City, who will probably leave for spring training in St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 28.

Neither Maxwell nor the Cardinal front office would say what his salary would be. An unofficial estimate was $20,000. Although he will be in Florida, Maxwell said his wife and their children will remain in Granite City.

Second, Third Place Battles Developing in Scoring Race

With the area's scoring title nearly in his back pocket, Dale Turner continues to lead all area scorers with a 246 points per game average. He has scored 516 points in 21 games.

But strong battling is underway for the second and third spots. Leg Wiley holds down the runner-up position with a 21.1 average. The Belleville ace has netted 425 points in 20 games.

Close behind is Highland junior Craig Manwaring, with a 20.7 clip. Manwaring, on last year's Press-Record All-Midwestern conference cage team, has 434 points in 21 contests.

Fourth position goes to Collinsville's Tim Parker with a 19.7 average with 415 points in 21 contests. Duplo's Dennis Cook is right behind Parker with a 19.4 mark; he has played in 22 games and has dumped in 427 points.

Dillon Sixth
Venice's rebounding artist, Percy Dillon, is sixth with a scoring average of 18.6 in 23 games, and Cahokia's high scoring Mark Catlett is seventh with 18.3 for 22 contests.

Rich Essington of Venice is eighth with an 18.1 average for 23 games, scoring 417 points. Granite City's Larry Ripka, with the help of 90 points against Bethalto (10-11) could still salvage a winning season with a win over Mettish Friday night.

Few Super-Stars Like Don Freeman

By Mike Gremard
Press-Record Sports Editor

Don Freeman is a man to watch out for on a basketball court today. But there was a time when the former Madison All-State center posed not as much of a threat to opposing schools.

Back in his junior year at Madison, present coach Earl McClanahan's first year there, Freeman started the 1964 season as a reserve on the varsity team.

But, as boys do, Freeman began to gain poise and explore the limits of his abilities. By the time Christmas was playing varsity basketball.

It wasn't until late in the hot tourney season that the 6'3" Madison player started making headlines with his court performances.

The high-scoring pair of Ed Walker and Danny Hrysko had dominated Madison play that year as the Trojans finished with a 18-5 overall record.

Freeman had a good year, second in scoring and game average for the Trojans. McClanahan was able to post a winning record in his first season at Madison.

After that 1964-65 season, Freeman and McClanahan teamed up for an even more rewarding 29 games the following year.

In Freeman's senior year (1965-66) the Trojans started off like a blaze of fire, running up an impressive list of victories.

Defense was the key to the Trojan attack as they dominated conference contender Bethalto 74-29 and 68-25. The Highland Bulldogs led to the point of offense and stingy defense of Madison, 106-58.

Perennial state powerhouse, Collinsville, lost at Madison, 60-50. Going into the regionals, the Trojans racked up an impressive season record. Freeman was racking up records himself.

That year, he shot 609 from the field, scored 778 points. As averaged 26.8 points per contest. The three marks are modern day records at Madison.

Freeman had two of his most outstanding prep performances late in the season. He netted 35 points as Madison humiliated Collinsville 83-44 in the final game of the regionals, and he scored 40 points against Northwestern as Madison won the first game of the sectional tournament, 71-68.

How to Stop Freeman
There seemed to be no way of stopping the "Trojans," but Belleville found a way—catch Freeman and company on a cold night.

As a result, Madison scored the final game in the sectionals to the Maypons, 71-68. Freeman netted 18 points in that game.

Since his high school days, Don has gone on to bigger and better things. Walker and Hrysko also went on to bigger things. Walker is a senior on the St. Louis University team, and Hrysko accepted a scholarship to Northwestern.

Currently the captain of the Fighting Illini, Don appears able to erase all scoring records at Illinois. What's more, he will have done this with personal hardships in his way.

Two days following the death of his father, he scored a career high of 35 points against Iowa in a Big Ten game at Champaign.

Despite an arthritic condition in his knees, he has brought basketball fans to their feet with amazing clutch performances.

He is not a selfish player; he has worked with Collinsville and the younger members of the Illinois squad on their shooting and passing this year.

March 5 will be Don's day. It will be all his and, because he is a great athlete, champion and team player, on and off the court, he will make the most of it.

Freeman and McClanahan will team up once more on the basketball court. Freeman will be the team's leading scorer and McClanahan will be the team's leading defender.

McClanahan will present Freeman with a plaque, honoring him for his athletic achievements.

After receiving his degree in June, Don will more than likely enter the world of business. As for professional basketball, he feels that his size would be against him.

As he puts it, "Professional basketball is for superstars, not really big men."

At Madison high school or at the University of Illinois, how much bigger do you think?

ribbled the length of the court and let go with a perfect left-handed jump shot with five seconds remaining. The score stood at 66-65.

Cahokia threw the ball in bounds and Turner shot a basket, but could not make a basket before the final horn sounded.

Neil Podoba, Cahokia's Madison cager, did not dress for the game. McClanahan said Podoba has water on the knee. He recently re-joined the team after recovering from a hairline fracture of the right elbow.

Turner led all scorers with 27 points, and Paul Lusk added 22 to the Madison cause. Gary Lusk chipped in with 11 points.

Ken Hillyard was high for Cahokia with 24 points while Mark Cattett netted 18 points.

Madison teams committed more than their average number of fouls—Madison 19 and Cahokia 23. The Trojans held an advantage in free throw shooting, making 25 of 34. Cahokia made 24 of 32 charity shots. Madison had 17 turnovers and Cahokia 11.

The game gave Cahokia sole possession of the conference basketball crown. Madison's third place with a 6-3 record, behind Dupu with a 7-3 conference slate. Dupu has finished its league schedule and Madison has one conference game left, at Bethalto Friday night.

Cahokia is 8-1 in league play with a game at Highland Friday night remaining to be played.

Daves showed preliminary drawings and said more details will be worked out. Daves has architectural plans currently are being drawn up by Architect Sylvester Delinger.

Funds Before Construction
He assured the board that no attempt will be made to start construction until the full financing has been assured.

A general discussion brought out the opinion that the project might cost $750,000. Daves had estimated the cost at $500,000 and says he has $100,000 in pledges at the present time.

A drive chairman and leaders of major divisions of the fund campaign are to be announced in the near future, Daves told the Press-Record.

Replace Wooden Stands
The two-story structure would replace the wooden eastern stands at the high school football field and would seat about 4800 persons. It would include dressing rooms and coaching offices.

Western stands also are to be replaced with new wooden stands seating about 4800.

Present stands seat about 1500 on each side, a total of 3000 compared to the proposed 8600.

Daves said the facilities would be superior to those available at high schools elsewhere in this area.

He and board members noted the new wrestling practice space would be to be prepared. GCHS gymnasium building where both basketball and wrestling squads now practice. Wrestling meets would come to be held in the gym to provide room for spectators.

It was noted that although the stadium area is used primarily for football, it is available for other public activities which could benefit from the presence of a large seating structure.

"Applications for boys wishing to play baseball in the Granite City park district summer leagues will be accepted in the park office beginning today."

Supt. Harold Brown said parents of boys not on teams, or register their boys with the park district office in Wilson Park. The park staff then will place the boys on teams.

Eligible boys must be between the ages of seven and 17, and must have reached their seventh birthday before May 1, Brown said.

He added that adults interested in managing teams also should contact the park office.

Board Favors Stadium Fund Drive Planned
Proposed construction of Jimmy Stuart Memorial concrete football stadium, including locker rooms and quarters for physical education classes and wrestling practice, was endorsed by the Granite City school board Monday night.

Supt. Russell D. Johnson said Emerald Dawes, president of the Boosters of the Fighting Warriors, said "We have no money for a project of this kind, but that the superintendent 'will be sure to work with you in any way to promote the construction.'"

Daves showed preliminary drawings and said more details will be worked out. Daves has architectural plans currently are being drawn up by Architect Sylvester Delinger.

Reports were received from Mrs. Lorene Whittington, Jim Roller, Charles Mase, the latter on a basketball bazaar at the school Feb. 25, and Bert Ahrens, safety chairman, on a "block protection plan."

A certificate and award were presented by Norman Draper, institutional representative, to Mrs. McKinney, who in turn presented it to Donald Kopp, principal. Nameoki was the only school in the Granite City area to receive the national unit award, "Breakthrough for Youth," it was reported.

The president gave awards to 37 children for selling over $25 worth of magazines during the fall. Four awards, for selling over $100 worth, were presented to Glenda Howell, Russell Cherry, Maurine Dailey and Sue Ellen Carls.

An election was also held for a nominating committee. Those elected were Gene Monahan, chairman, Mrs. Rella Knapp, Mrs. Carol Merz, Jerry Smith and Ahrens.

Mrs. Merz, vice-president, introduced the past PTA presidents, who were honored in a talk by Miss Lanie Tadlock from a Granite City high school drama class, explaining Founders' Day.

Past presidents dating back to 1949 introduced were Mrs. Elva Mae Spiceland, Mrs. Beatrice Pyle, Mrs. Ella Wade, Mrs. Alta Stewart, Joe Haxler, Walter Volkmar, Roy Schubert and Kopp. Each was presented a gift by Mrs. Merz.

It was announced that Past President Herman Greve could not attend; he had left for Vietnam in connection with civil service work early that morning.

Guest speaker, Supt. Russell D. Johnson, discussed "What's New in Education."

Refreshments were served by third grade room mothers to over 200. It was announced by Kopp that Gene Monahan, fifth grade room received the award for most parents present.

The executive board meeting will meet March 8. At the next PTA unit meeting March 15, the program will be "With Our Community Officials." Guest speakers will be Mayor Donald Partney, Fire Chief Fromberger and Police Chief Ray Willard.

Fire Prevention Talks for PTA

Highlights of the meeting Tuesday evening of the McKinley PTA were talks and demonstrations on fire prevention by Assistant Fire Chief Curtis Donley and Fire Capt. Leonard Wilson.

Mrs. Shirley Grider, president, was in charge and plans were made for a chili supper Feb. 22 from 4:30 until 7:30 p.m. at the school. The tickets will be 70 cents for adults and 40 cents for children.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by the second grade room teachers.

"ACE SETS THE PACE" — QUALITY AT LOWER PRICES

Medicare Alert Program Starts this Week in Area

An estimated 6000 elderly persons are expected to be contacted through "Operation Medicare Alert," an eight-week informational program designed to acquaint senior citizens with their Medicare rights and assist them in applying for coverage.

The project got under way in Madison county this week, after field workers were briefed Tuesday at the Venice city hall.

Details on procedures, eligibility and assigned areas to be covered were discussed by Ralph Brasher, director of the East St. Louis Social Security office, and William P. Hale of Collinsville, recently-appointed supervisor for the two-county program.

Also addressing the 30 survey-takers who attended the briefing were Hugh R. Hairston of Venice, Madison county Economic Opportunity Commission vice-president, and Donald Frost, Alton Social Security field representative.

Aid Senior Citizens "Through the program," Brasher said, "it is hoped to furnish assistance to many senior citizens who live in isolated circumstances." The director added that persons eligible for the $3-a-month doctor bill portion of Medicare must be signed up prior to March 31 or wait until late next year. The March deadline does not include the hospitalization benefits of the Medicare Act.

1966-67 Classes To Begin Aug. 31 In GC District

Classes in the 1966-67 school year will begin Aug. 31 and end June 2, the Granite City school board decided Monday night.

The calendar calls for 185 days, including four "institute" days on which there will be teacher meetings rather than classes.

It is informally planned to declare holidays on Maundy Thursday, March 23, 1967, and on Easter Monday and Tuesday, March 27 and 28. These holidays are not mentioned in the calendar at this time in order to comply with state regulations and rulings, but they are to be declared in February, 1967 unless there have been unscheduled losses of school days.

Principals are to meet Aug. 25 and 26, new teachers Aug. 29 and all teachers Aug. 30. Special dates include Labor Day Sept. 5, Illinois Education Association and American Federation of Teachers meetings Oct. 14, an institute Oct. 28, Veterans Day Nov. 11, Thanksgiving holiday Nov. 24-25, Good Friday March 24, institute April 7, Memorial Day May 30 and records day June 1.

Last day of school before the Christmas-New Year's holidays will be Thursday, Dec. 22, with classes resuming Tuesday, Jan. 3. The first semester will end Jan. 20 and the second will begin Jan. 23.

Venice police said the accident occurred when a car driven by John Wise Jr. of 1229 Oriole street, Venice, collided with one driven by Joseph P. Sebasak of 2628 Grand avenue. Wise, a Venice volunteer fireman, was headed west on Broadway and was making a left turn into State street when the mishap occurred. He was not on an emergency call. Sebasak was headed east.

The only thing that looks low-priced on a Pontiac Tempest is its price sticker.

And that's removable.

Take it off, and there's just a pure, unadorned Pontiac Tempest. Plus the advanced performance of a new, overhead cam 6 engine that puts out with all the punch of an 8, yet saves like the traditional 6. And of course, being a Pontiac, Tempest allows you the luxury of choice—with options in engines, transmissions, suspensions.

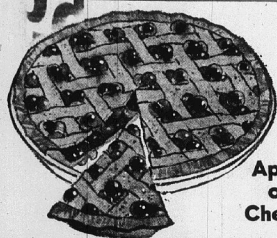

practically everywhere. And like all Pontiacs, Tempest also has a standard safety package with items like seat belts to buckle-front and rear. (That ought to do for now. We'll tell you the rest when you get here.)

Protestant Welfare's Aid To 147 Persons Totals $734

The Protestant Welfare Association, meeting Tuesday evening at First Baptist Church, heard Mrs. Marie Whittle, office secretary, report that $734 was expended during the month of January to aid needy families and individuals.

This includes $496 for food; $17, medical; $29, new shoes and clothing; $57, rent; $133, utilities; and $1.75, miscellaneous. The office handled 36 cases, involving 147 persons. Of the cases 14 were new, eight were recurrent and 14 were incidental. Referreds were made by citizens, ministers, Granite City, Venice and Nameoki township offices; ADC and old age pension case-workers and Co-ordinated Youth Services.

Forty orders were issued, including 28 from the store room with the items valued at $271. Other items received and given away were a divan and chair, one spring and two mattresses, one rug, an electric plate, dishes, coffee pot, blanket and a bed spread valued at $90.

The meeting opened with a devotional service led by Rev. Harold Maze, pastor of the church. Roy Lynn, president, presided. New members and guests were welcomed and in addition to Mrs. Whittle's report there were reports from Mrs. Johnson with pictures and Mrs. Mary Si-travelogue of their trip around the world. The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Rev. J. H. Amshury of the Dewey Avenue Methodist Church.

Three-Car Accident— One Driver Charged

One motorist was charged Tuesday afternoon following a three-car pile-up in the 1600 block of Madison avenue, where two of the autos were stopped for a red traffic signal light. Charged with following too closely was Beverly Ann Wilson, 33, of 2021 Illinois avenue.

Police said the drivers of the halted autos were Olan Clark, 2832 Dale avenue, and Joseph Kowalski, 2037 Harris street, Madison. No injuries were reported. All three cars were headed south.

Visitation was extended by Paul Simons to the dedication of the new Hope Lutheran Church at 10 a.m. Sunday.

Mrs. Whittle gave the report of the auditing committee for Glynv Hodges, chairman.

After the reading of communications the members were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson with pictures and Mrs. Mary Si-travelogue of their trip around the world. The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Rev. J. H. Amshury of the Dewey Avenue Methodist Church.

24-HOUR SERVICE

Open House Sunday at New Happy Day Child Center

A current enrollment of 18 youngsters is attending the recently opened Happy Day Child Care Center quartered in the new Assembly of God educational building at 24th street and Grand avenue, which will conduct open house Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m. The public is invited to inspect the facilities.

The care center was opened Jan. 3 after a review of working plans, coupled with discussions with ministers and other personnel indicated a serious need for such a center. Such a requirement in the area also was indicated through discussions with representatives of the Illinois State Division of Child Welfare.

Mrs. Inez Gann is director of the center. The Happy Day Child Care Center is incorporated and approved by the state's Child Welfare department. The director and all personnel also are approved by the state. A license has been granted on the basis of a maximum of 60 children. The service provides care for children ages two through five.

The building in which the center is located is completely new with rooms specifically planned for various activities. There is a room for music, rooms for story time and play, rooms for nap time and others. New kitchen facilities permit proper preparation of the twice-a-day snacks and hot noon lunch. A state-approved curriculum includes art, music, play time, naps and all other required factors set up by the state— all planned toward a child's interest and development.

The child care center will operate 52 weeks of the year, five days a week from 7 a.m. until 5 p.m. The fee is $15 per week per child, with adjustments for more than one child in the same family. Although the center is designed primarily for children of working parents, the center also accepts children on a daily basis.

Mrs. Gann said special days are planned for the youngsters, such as parties on their birthday, a party on Valentine's day and similar seasonal events. Plans also have been approved for a play yard which will include swings, sand boxes and appropriate equipment for two to five year olds. The yard will be fenced for the children's protection.

The center is not a church project, but is operated by a private corporation under a rental agreement with the church.

GC Fire and Police Board Seeks Rules, Added Powers

A proposed set of rules for the Granite City Board of Fire and Police Commissioners is being revamped this week by City Atty. Richard Allen for presentation to the city council at its meeting next Monday.

The rules would permit police and firemen to work an eight-hour shift on another job one day a week on an off-duty day, and it also gives the commissioners the power to hand down suspensions without pay for any infractions of five individual conduct regulations for both departments.

Objections from council members are anticipated, since at present, the police and firemen are not permitted to work on outside jobs other than those connected with police duties. William Brockus, chairman of the board, said the commissioners have been preparing them for the past six months, and that the presentation for adoption was not based on three-day suspensions handed down during the past holiday by Police Chief Wilfred for two officers reported to have been drinking while in uniform.

"We have never had a clear-cut set of rules to go by, and the board has never had the authority to hand down suspensions for rule infractions," Brockus said. He added that the chiefs still have authority to rule suspensions up to seven days without pay for any member of their departments disobeying rules.

The new regulations would give the commissioners authority to mete out disciplinary suspensions, after a hearing, for violations of the rules. The suspensions could be up to 15 days for a first offense and up to 30 days or discharge for second or third offenses.

Individual conduct rules would call for police and firemen to conduct themselves so as not to bring discredit to their departments and to be responsible for all financial and personal obligations. They are obligated to carry out all orders from superior officers and are not to associate with anyone of ill repute or having a record of law violations.

The police and firemen also would be required to wear proper uniform while on duty and while going to and from duty.

$3799 Equipment for New Cafeteria Ordered

Four work counters, two cooking cabinets, a baker's table and a kettle costing a total of $3799 were added to the Granite City high school cafeteria construction contract by the school board Monday night. The items, listed in the original bidding, will be paid from lunch receipts.

The board awarded other bid purchases as follows: potato products, $3063; M. J. Keilner Co., Springfield; Stallings school refrigerator, $1003; Spero Sales, Inc.; and audio-visual aids, a total of $1664 from six firms. Printing of election ballots will be awarded to East Ten Publishing, low bidder if there are three names or less on the ballot, or Troy Publishing Co., low bidder on four or more names.

Approval was given for expenditures totaling $36,888 in the educational fund, $2795 in the building fund, $46,038 in new construction, $1911 in the transportation fund and $41,263 in the cafeteria fund.

County Taxpayers in Board Fee Protest

The Madison County Taxpayers Association, in a letter to the county board of supervisors, is protesting the discrepancy of per diem payments for board members and expresses opposition to any further "leap frogging escalation in the per diem fees."

The letter points out that hold-over supervisors now receive $15 per diem while supervisors now in their first term of office receive $20 per day. This sets the stage, the letter said, for further increasing the per diem "which would in turn encourage county officials to seek an increase in an already ample compensation for their services."

Albert Wiltshuber, president of the association, signed the letter which pointed out that within six years the supervisors have received increases of 100% in their per diem fees. The fee was increased from $10 to $15 in 1960 and from $15 to $20 several years ago.

"While we are not opposed to ample payment for our representatives, an increase averaging better than 15% per year over a six-year period should result in a plateau in which further increases are curtailed," the letter went on, "especially in the light of the county's current financial crisis."

Whither America?

The Seeds of Government Tyranny

(Fourth of a series)

Thanks to a happy combination of fortuitous circumstances, America today is more truly "one nation" than ever before. Americans are coming to have more in common with each other because of more education and a higher standard of living for all.

Faster transportation and new means of communications have brought distant parts of the nation closer together. Moreover, we have generally put aside trivial differences so as to be more united in meeting challenges from abroad.

But America must be more than a car in the garage, a home in the suburbs, and a TV set in the den.

Without the freedom necessary for men and women to develop their powers of judgment, nurture their talents and sharpen their spiritual sensibilities, our comforts may become traps that can stifle our personal growth.

Yet on almost every hand we see the sphere of individual endeavor being narrowed down little by little—each time in the name of national unity.

For example, it used to be that the federal government set standards for controlling water pollution, and then let the states enforce them. Under the new pollution control law, the U.S. government will be able to move in directly to force a city or industrial plant to comply.

In dispensing aid, the federal government also used to go through the states. Now it goes directly to local authority with education funds, job training, depressed area aid and the like. Medicare, local transportation facilities, right-to-work laws—these, too, are vital areas where federal power has replaced or is replacing state or local initiative. Even the traditional separation of church and state has been breached as the federal government takes upon itself a major role in financing education.

Above all else, the framers of the Constitution feared concentrated power, which contains the seeds of tyranny. Each extension of federal prerogatives at the expense of states' rights brings us that much nearer the day when Americans may no longer be the masters of their own government but its servants.

And while each extension of federal authority seems harmless in itself, our liberties can vanish so gradually that we may not realize it's happening until it's too late.

We cannot rest easy with a mere statement of principle here, however, when the freedom we enjoy goes a concomitant responsibility.

As long as we wish to preserve our freedoms, we have a moral obligation to resist encroachments actively and constantly.

This means that we, as citizens, should perform all the functions we can, and that private means are unable to do what needs to be done should government step in.

When government action is needed, it should be undertaken at the level closest to the people it affects. Only when the state and local levels have been exhausted should the federal government also be called in.

As Woodrow Wilson once put it: "The history of liberty is largely the history of the limitation of government power, not the increase of it."

How To Hurt

A Fellow State

Illinois really knows how to hurt a fellow state, judging by the anguished reaction to a full-page advertisement placed in a New York newspaper this winter by the Illinois Department of Business and Economic Development.

Headed by the figure New York will probably have a typhoon of publicity, the advertisement needed New Yorkers about their long series of problems, which have included a water shortage, newspaper and transit strikes and a power black-out.

Now only the No. 2 state, New York is going to have to try a bit harder, even its residents concede. One who replied to the Illinois agency added a postscript: "Taking no chance with the New York mail service, I am posting this in Chicago."

And another writer praised this state because it "has enough money to pay for the advertisement."

Major counter-claims by New York, however, does and is plagued with "gangsters, taxes, pollution and one very bad copywriter."

But we don't know whether the ad was worth its cost, but there is no question that it stimulated thought about the good and bad points of the two states. If this and other methods are successful in catalyzing the virtues of living and doing business in Illinois, resulting in faster growth and greater prosperity for the Quad-Cities and elsewhere, maybe other states will then have to start figuring how to lure away our residents and manufacturers.

One is forced to admire the energy—if not the trustworthiness—of a resident of New York who has been forced to be simultaneously engaged to 30 young Italian ladies. A salute also goes to his demonstration of efficiency, Italian style; to keep track of the names, addresses, personalities and disposition of his many fiancées, he maintained a detailed card file.

In investigating for possible law violations, police have found it necessary to visit 14 cities, which may be 37 years ago, when the late Francisco Galletti, found it necessary to operate four autos and a motorcycle.

"Life becomes an exciting adventure when we expect at least one pleasant surprise each day, when we know that our future is not unashamedly, when we strive to do at least one anonymous act of kindness to someone who needs it most when we seek to discover the beauty and goodness in every person we meet."

—W. A. Ward, Texas Wesleyan College.

If midwesterners think they have air and water pollution problems, they need only look to Texas to find consolation. A chemical company there had so much difficulty with rodents sabotaging an expensive evaporation pond built to keep wastes out of a nearby river that it imported alligators for patrol duty.

Science and the Quad-Cities

Studying the Chemistry of Life

Chemically speaking, the human body is not worth as much as several dollars of pain, at most, even at today's inflated prices.

Actually, Americans and many other people of the world place a great value on human life. The gift of life is sacred because it stems from God; mankind has never been able to duplicate it in the chemist's laboratory.

Because man values life, and because it is so improved and extended although not originated, experimental tests go on continually, a progress report from the American Chemical Society reveals.

Victims of Burns

For example, it is commonly known that a burn victim who has lost much of the body's skin has a poor chance of living. Although there have been rare exceptions, the rule is that those burned severely on more than half of their body cannot long survive.

This is because there simply is not enough skin left to transplant over the burned area. The victim's body rejects skin transplanted from another person.

But future victims may have a better chance.

Chemist Heinrich Thiele

of West Germany has prepared a synthetic skin that has been successful in animal tests and is ready for trial on human beings.

He took pigskin, dissolved it, and removed the skin's components which cause rejection of skin grafts. Then he re-built the skin with the leftover material and some added chemicals.

The product looks like skin. The important thing is that, in the animal experiments, the synthetic skin was grafted over burned areas without rejection by the body.

Many additional tests and trials

Capable Instructors

No elementary school should offer languages unless it is sure of having first-rate teachers, can incorporate the classes into the regular school day and can be sure that students will be able to continue.

If the junior or senior high school language programs are a weak link, that's where the school district should put its effort before rushing into a FLES program.

Father of GC Man

Buried at Edwardsville

Funeral services were held today in Edwardsville for Arthur W. Cunningham, 78, of that community, the father of Mrs. Thomas (Alvera) Jones of Granite City.

A former Edwardsville municipal employee, Mr. Cunningham died at 2:15 a.m. Monday at St. Joseph's Hospital, Highland.

He was a member of the St. Joseph's Assembly of God Church and of the Moose Lodge 1561. Also surviving is his wife, Mrs. Pearl Cunningham.

Nobody Ever Convinced

Him That He Was Too Small

As "mere" six feet three inches tall, Don Freeman of Madison might appear too small to compete as a forward in Big Ten basketball. But nobody ever convinced him of that, and he has done much more than just compete, despite painful arthritis in his knees.

Now closing out his senior year at the University of Illinois, Freeman has been honored by his teammates with election as captain. Scoring over 20 points a game, playing skillfully on defense, setting up teammates with accurate passes and snaring rebounds from taller opponents, he is the principal reason why the Illini have remained in contention for the conference championship.

Freeman has emphasized team success rather than individual accomplishment, but still seems destined to break two all-time Illinois scoring records—the 1960 points scored by Dave Downey during his 1961-62 senior season and the 536 tallied by John Kerr in 1954. Other marks which potentially could be broken are the single-game totals of 53 by Downey, 40 by Granite City's Andy Phillip and 38 by Kerr.

A genuine student, Freeman has his feet on the ground although "airborne" during a major part of his playing time. Due to his size and physical condition, he would consider but is not counting on a professional basketball career. And despite the acclaim and the applause accorded a major college all-star athlete, his hat size has remained the same; he is among the most popular of the athletes.

Because his conduct has reflected great credit on Illinois and the Quad-Cities, a local delegation will honor him on "Don Freeman Day" Saturday, March 5, when his team will play Iowa at Champaign.

Scene of the ceremony will be the new Assembly Hall which was nearing completion at the time he was graduating from Madison high school. The university's assistant coach, here on a speaking engagement and a radio effort, jokingly predicted four years ago that it would be named Freeman Hall; such a proposal now is not nearly as far-fetched, thanks to the efforts of a young athlete who didn't believe he was too small.

Two-Dimensional Tracking Of Planes

Leaves Possibility Of Collisions

Life is three-dimensional; some say even four. The two-dimensional approach to traffic control on America's "highways" should be ended as quickly as possible.

Planes travel at differing heights and speeds as well as in differing directions. Yet only in Indianapolis is there a system in which blips on a radar screen are tagged with the actual altitude of planes, and this is an experimental program.

Computerized traffic separation—known as SPAN, a Stored Program Alpha Numerics—is being tested at a radar station in the New York area airports beginning this summer. A 1968 target date has been set for Jacksonville, Fla.

But only the New York air route traffic control will have the system initially; not until 1969 will automatic altitude reporting equipment be installed in New York approach and departure control rooms, which keep craft in safe and separate blocks of air space in the vicinity of airports. A gradual spread along the East Coast is visualized; the Federal Aviation Agency expects nationwide automatic air traffic control by 1973.

Aerial collisions in the 1960s already have killed hundreds of passengers as well as a few urban residents; there were no advance warnings from the ground. Under the new procedure, there will be warnings and a real chance to avoid air collisions. We certainly hope it will be soon enough to add the height element to the tracking of planes.

How to Buy 1986 Convertible Today

Q. My daughter is six months old. I want to start some kind of a fund toward her college education. I had thought I would buy an insurance policy that would mature when she becomes 20; good quality company which is but my insurance agent—of all selling low right now because its convertible feature is so far in said there are better ways of providing the money—by buying common stock, for example, I believe I can put aside $10 to $15 a month for this purpose now, and more later. What would you advise?

A. The distant convertible stock, for example, I would not work against you, since you don't expect to need the money for nearly 20 years. An illustration would be McCort Corporation preferred. A share of this convertible stock now selling at $70, pays $4.50 per year and has a $100 redemption value.

Such a stock provides a good income, over six per cent, has some chance of appreciation while you are waiting for the eventual redemption or conversion should work to make a profit. It is quite likely at the time of your need.

Safeguard Your Health

An Eye-Q Test for Quad-Cityans

Have you ever stopped to think about how many of your friends and business associates wear glasses or contact lenses?

Chances are that more than half of them do; statistics show that 80 million Americans, out of a population of 185 million, sport one or the other.

Absolutely perfect vision is so rare that less than one per cent of our population enjoys it. The problem of defective vision—due principally to heredity and personal neglect—has given rise to many "helpful hints" on the care of the eyes in recent years. Though some are true, others are completely erroneous and cause a lot of undue worry.

Would You Believe . . . ? Let's examine some of the more popular beliefs making the rounds today. Would you believe that . . .

1. EATING CARROTS WILL IMPROVE YOUR VISION? This age-old idea is absolutely false. Carrots and other dark-green and green vegetables are an excellent source of vitamin A, which helps produce the chemical reaction involved in seeing. Eating them by the carrot-ore does not improve them from their completely normal state. It will not affect your vision.

2. READING ON TRAINS AND BUSES IS HARMFUL? False, at least in most cases. Most people, particularly commuters, have a train or bus. The eyes may tire on occasion, however, at which time you should stop reading.

Eye Fatigue? 3. WATCHING TELEVISION CAN CAUSE EYE STRAIN? This is also false. In fact, most ophthalmologists agree that there is no such thing as eye strain. If you spend many hours at a time in front of your set without resting your eyes periodically, however, you can suffer eye fatigue. Should your eyes tire, however, better have them examined by a physician.

4. CHILDREN USUALLY OUT-GROW CROSSED EYES? Another popular, but erroneous idea. Crossed eyes should be treated as early as possible, lest a blindness result. The condition—usually due to improper control of the muscles which move the eyes—is usually cured with glasses, eye drops, exercises or surgery, or possibly a combination of these.

Redness & Red Eye 5. COMMON "RED EYE" CAN BE DANGEROUS? This is true. Although often considered harmless, common "red eye" can cause blindness, even death. If the redness is caused by a speck of dust, virus or allergy, there is no serious cause for concern. On the other hand, it might also be due to increased pressure in the eye, a condition that could lead to blindness unless treated properly. By the same token, you can't improve the condition by not wearing them. Only rare cases usually require surgery, near sightedness, which generally increases until about 20.

7. CHILDREN SHOULD HAVE AN EYE EXAMINATION BEFORE GOING TO SCHOOL? This is true. Children should have a medical eye examination when they are three or four years old. They should usually come back at this period, and the examination will permit the correction of any vision problems before they become too severe.

News From The File Of The GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

FEBRUARY 18, 1916

Promoters of a Chicago-to-St. Louis automobile boulevard, which was endorsed by the Granite City Commercial club, and for which a number of Granite City residents subscribed stock, held a two-session in Springfield this week. They formulated additional plans for construction of the road from City to Du Quoin center.

Appropriate services commemorating the birth of the Pythian Order were held at the St. Paul Lutheran Church, No. 602, Knights of Pythias.

The Young People's Society of St. Paul Lutheran Church gave a Valentine's assembly party at its club room, Twenty-third and G streets. The place was beautifully decorated with hearts, red ribbon, cups, etc. Prizes were awarded to Miss Anna Droege for best costume and to Henry Kubant for the best gentlemen's valentine.

Patrons of St. Elizabeth Hospital, Granite City, and their friends to the number of nearly 1000 enjoyed an indoor fair and entertainment at Reinhold Hall, Madison. The crowd was so large that it was necessary to erect an additional hall for the overflow audience.

The Bay View Reading club met with Mrs. Morgan Lee Masters at her home, 2200 D street. Following is the program: A song, by Club Quartet; reading, by Mrs. George Goudy; parliamentary drill, by Mrs. Otto Hoevel; roll call and favorite song.

The following items were taken from the files of the Granite City Press-Record:

FEBRUARY 17, 1941

Red and white decorations and candy hearts and favors made an effective setting for a Valentine party at which Mrs. Dolores Allen, Miss Betta Niedringhaus and Mrs. Rose Darling entertained telephone operators of the local exchange at the Allen home, 2525 Lincoln avenue.

The Valentine motif was used in the arrangements of the party. After an evening of various games, refreshments were served by the hostesses to Miss Mary Lou Lesca Spray, Marie Parker, Ella Mae Kahler, Anna Mae Jones, Mary Jane Clark and Helen Backs and Mrs. Mary Lou Conary, Mrs. Gwen Coss, Mrs. Corrine Stirling, Mrs. Opal Meyling, Mrs. Edna Forcise, Mrs. Eunice Curry, Mrs. Kathryn Knipping, Mrs. Helen McKechnie and Mrs. Lillie Compton.

Miss Margaret Means of Ponton road, Nameoki, entertained the Kiwanis club at a Valentine party. The young people served the evening dancing party. Games, refreshments and served refreshments.

The place cards and favors carried out the Valentine theme. Those present were Mrs. Irma Lange, Miss Kathryn Compton, Miss Ruth Hammer, Mrs. Gloria Stephens, Mrs. Anna Mae Morrison, Miss Marjorie Greenndorff and Mrs. Jean Burris, Paul Tur and Ruth Benner.

There were 28 present at a Valentine party given by teachers and students of the primary department of the Baptist Church of Venice. After an exchange of gifts, the prizes were given to Dorothy and Mrs. Jean Burris, Paul Tur and Ruth Benner.

47 GC Teachers Placed on Tenure

Forty-seven teachers were placed on tenure by the Granite City School board Monday night. The list of instructors, including all grade levels, consists of those with two years of experience in the local district.

Another seven teachers in the same category had the probationary employment extended to a third year. In all but one case this was because they have only provisional teaching certificates at present.

It was decided to continue the employment of 14 employees, including eight teachers, five cafeteria workers and a custodial matron; they will be 65 or 66 as of July 1. Employment between age 65 and 67 is at the discretion of the board and administrative staff.

Nine Retiring

Nine June 3 retirements, including six mandatory under the 67 age rule, were approved, along with eight resignations. Supt. Russell D. Johnson noted that "some time ago we had a discussion regarding the mandatory retirement at age 67. At some time the board should review this policy either to retain it as it is now or to revise it."

"My personal thinking is that by retention of the present policy, we stand the chance of losing some very capable people. But if you discard or raise the age of 67, you stand a good chance of encountering other problems. I would prefer and recommend no change in the present policy."

Retirements announced were those of Miss Myrtle Draper, 2133 Cleveland blvd., Webster school first grade teacher; Mrs. Estella McBrian, 1829 Second street, Madison, Webster third grade; Miss Paula Christ, St. Louis county, Marshall third grade; Mrs. Bernice Heumann, Northwoods, Mo., high school business education; Alfred Krumsiek, 2315 State street, GCHS world history; Arthur Brandes, 2208 Edison avenue, Central junior high custodian; and Mrs. Hazel Runk, 2427 Washington avenue, Mrs. Clara Wadlow, 2450 Benton street, Webster school cafeteria workers.

Resignations announced, effective at the end of this term in June, were those of Daniel Kelleher, 78 University drive, GCHS social studies teacher; Philip Abramovich, Alto; GCHS English; Mrs. Hilda Smith, 2639 Cleveland blvd., GCHS social studies; Mrs. Verna Willmott, 2546 Sheridan avenue, Nameoki third grade; Mrs. Lesca Watts, 2504 Adams street, McKinley cafeteria worker; Mrs. Mary Willard, 2717 Madison avenue, Frohardt cafeteria employee; and Mrs. Naomi Chapman, 2337 Center street, GCHS cafeteria worker.

In another action, the board terminated the employment of a high school custodian, hired Jan. 10, for failure to report after the first day.

Daughter Arrives For John Spanbergers

Word was received earlier this week of the arrival of a new granddaughter for four Granite Cityans. The infant, born Feb. 10, is the first child for Torpedoman Third Class and Mrs. John Wayne Spanberger of National City, Calif. She weighed eight pounds and three ounces and has been named Deanna Linn. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spanberger, 2321 Delmar avenue, Mrs. Lola Spanberger, 2230 Lincoln avenue, and Donald B. Willis, 2001 Washington avenue. The mother will be remembered as the former Miss Donna Mae Willis.

Two Liquor Law Fines

Rockne Housend, 19, of 820 Grand avenue, Madison, was fined $20 plus $5 costs on a charge of illegal possession of liquor, and Marlin Hutchinson, 17, of 908 Grand avenue, Madison, was fined a total of $65 on charges of illegal transportation of liquor and a curfew violation in magistrate's court Monday. They were arrested at 12:05 a.m. Saturday at West 20th street and Rock road.

Hospital Expansion Decision May be Reached on Mar. 14

A decision is expected March 14 on how St. Elizabeth Hospital will proceed with the 20-year, multi-million dollar expansion program.

The program is in the hands of the lay advisory board for study and will be the main topic of discussion at the next meeting on March 14.

A brief outline of the program, which includes a proposal for a 100-bed annex to be built on the present site within the next 20 years, also calls for relocation of the old main entrance to the present hospital departments. The board members gave their approval for the raising of the former home-office of the late Dr. Everett at the southwest corner of 21st and Iowa streets to be obtained. The lay board re-elected its officers: C. Stover, chairman, Joseph Glik, vice-chairman, and Sister Mary Frances, secretary. Seven board members also were named for three-year terms.

The new members are C. E. Blankenship of A. O. Smith Corp. and J. D. Bartels of the Press-Record. Re-elected were Jean Christy, William Hoelscher, E. A. Karandjef, Roy Logan and Robert McCormick. Blankenship and Bartels replace William Brockus and Howard Kaseberg.

A V-17H Humidifier goes one step further than nature. It gives you the benefits of humidity—statistically controlled and automatic moisture indoors for you and your family's complete comfort. Dry, artificially heated air causes skin to dry out. This uncomfortable condition is minimized when a proper moisture level is maintained. Proper humidification will reduce heating costs too. Even your wood furniture, floors and doors will have a minimum of drying out thus preventing cracks and warping. With a V-17H you receive many bonus features. Come in and see us for a free demonstration now.

225,035 Fishermen Catch Over Half-Million in '65

Fishery biologists of the Illinois Department of Conservation have reported results of a creel census at 11 state lakes surveyed in 1965. Lakes checked are Argyle State Lake, Sam Dale, Weldon Springs, L. P. Dolan, Le-Aqua-Na, Lincoln Trail, McLean County, Randolph County, Pierce, Siloam Springs and Spring Lake.

An estimated 225,034 persons fished at the lakes and caught almost one-half million fish weighing 137,000 pounds. The bluegill was the most common fish taken, with bullheads and largemouth bass placing second and third.

Fishermen at Argyle State Lake near Colchester averaged slightly more than a fish per hour. Weldon Springs Lake in DeWitt County had the heaviest fishing with over 1700 hours of fishing per acre.

Pfc. Somers Relates Jungle Camp Experiences in Vietnam

For north of Saigon is the main headquarters camp of the First Cavalry Division, a Granite City soldier is pursuing his old job of welding to keep combat equipment in tip top shape.

Pfc. Billy L. Somers, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Somers, 2814 Buxton avenue, was a welder at the local auto frame manufacturing plant of A. O. Smith Corp. before being drafted.

Pfc. Somers, 1963 graduate of Granite City high school, has been in Vietnam since Dec. 1. While the camp is surrounded by 22 miles of entanglement of barbed wire that is 100-feet deep, it frequently comes under enemy fire, and nightly there are gun battles around the perimeter.

His First Assignment

Pfc. Somers, who is with an engineer battalion, helped build the barbed wire protection. It was his first assignment upon arrival at the camp. Located about 230 miles from Saigon, the soldiers there get all supplies by airplane or helicopter.

Seat belts must be in all 1961 and later automobiles by March 1, according to a law the 74th General Assembly enacted last June. The Illinois Department of Public Safety reminded motorists today.

Failure to comply with the regulation could result in a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $100 for the first offense.

The general assembly made installation of front seat belts mandatory in June 1965. Since 1966, Illinois has required that all new cars sold and registered in the state have seat belt anchors for the front seat.

Learn while Vacationing HS Workshop Set at SIU

Prep students from a half dozen or more states will "learn while vacationing" in southern Illinois July 4-30 when they take part in the tenth annual High School Summer Workshops in Communications.

Last year 125 students went to Southern Illinois University campus, Carbondale, from Arkansas, California, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri and Illinois to attend workshops in journalism, speech, theater, photography, and interpretation. The same fields of study will be offered this year under the guidance of SIU specialists.

The program is designed to improve the work of the students in dramatics, yearbook and newspaper activity, photography, speech, and reading during their last year, or final two years, in high school.

Eligible are qualified high school students who currently are sophomores and juniors. They must have endorsement of faculty, administrative, community leaders, and family physician.

Marion Kleinau, workshops coordinator, said enrollment is limited and applications should be in by May 25. Cost is $133, which includes $110 for four weeks of room and board, except Sunday evening meals, and a $23 fee to cover activities. Application forms are available at the SIU campus.

2-Year NROTC Program Open to Sophomores

The Navy Department announced today the continuation of the two-year NROTC college program leading to an officer's commission.

The program is designed to open NROTC opportunities to college sophomores in good standing at any accredited college, junior college or university to enroll as a contract NROTC student in one of the 52 participating colleges and universities.

A special six-week training session will be conducted July 11-Aug. 19 at four universities—Missouri, U., U.C.L.A., University of North Carolina and Tulane. Candidates will enroll in the summer session and take naval science courses normally studied by NROTC students during their freshman and sophomore years.

Successful completion will make the candidate eligible for enrollment at the junior level of the NROTC program if he is attending or admitted to one of the 52 colleges.

Completion of the NROTC program will enable the candidate to obtain a commission as a Navy ensign or a Marine second lieutenant.

Selected applicants will receive paid transportation to and from the special session plus $87.80 a month during the training session. During the junior and senior years he will pursue the normal academic program leading to a degree along with courses in naval science. More information may be obtained from the Navy recruiter in the East St. Louis post office.

More than 100 separate projects receive outside research funds totaling $8 million yearly at Southern Illinois University.

Shortage of College Grads To Fill Job Openings

A shortage of college graduates to fill jobs in business and industry is developing as the war in Vietnam expands, according to the director of one of the nation's largest college placement services.

"The air of uncertainty caused by the prospect of military service is affecting the plans of both men and women graduates," says Roy R. Bryant, director of Placement Services at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Ill. Ranked 20th in enrollment among the nation's universities, SIU will have nearly 3000 graduates this summer but has only 670 seniors registered for job interviews.

Men are planning to go ahead and get their military service over with as soon as they graduate, or are enrolling in graduate school, Bryant said. "In many cases women's plans depend upon what their fiances or husbands do, so we don't have as many women looking for jobs." Bryant said at least 50% of the seniors would normally be registered with Placement Service by the end of January, but this year only about 25% seem to be seeking jobs. Contact with other college placement bureaus indicates that this is a national pattern, he said.

"Generally speaking, employment opportunities for 1966 graduates will exceed the number available to last year's graduates, and some salaries run into five figures," Bryant said.

Annual Hair, Style Show to be Held Sunday

"Wing Into Spring," theme of the third annual fashion and hair style extravaganza to be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Venice-Madison American Legion Dugout, 204 Broadway, Venice, denotes the newest trend in the hair-styling world, according to Mrs. Evelyn Line, chairman.

Those attending will preview the latest spring and summer clothing styles and the new coiffures, she explained.

Tickets for the show, sponsored by the Elite Hairdressers' and Cosmetologists Association, are available at most Quad-City beauty salons and Helman's Style Shop, or may be purchased Sunday at the door. Proceeds will be donated to the Granite City Association for Aid to Retarded Children.

Interest in the combined hair and clothing show has increased each year since the initial show, when the sponsors were compelled to present a repeat performance the same day due to an overflow crowd, Mrs. Line said.

Capacity attendance is expected since nearly 60% of local women visit beauty salons at least once each month and about 87% use their services on an annual basis.

Those attending Sunday's show will be treated to a "Festival of Fantasy" segment, entitled "Fairy Tales," in which 14 models will portray characters from well-known stories and nursery rhymes.

Represented among the colorful costumes and "fantastic" hair styles, will be Little Miss Muffet, Cinderella, Thumbelina, Little Red Riding Hood, Peter Pan, The Dancing Shoes, Rapunzel, The Frog Prince, Mary, Mary, The Golden Goose, Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater, Rumpelstiltskin, Aladdin and His Lamp and the Golden Bird.

Exhibits displayed in last year's show went on to take first place honors at the State Hairdressers' Association convention in Chicago and later represented Illinois at the national convention.

Commentators will be Mrs. Genelle Lobstein of Belleville, who will describe the new hair styles, and Mrs. Valerie Ewiggen, a Press-Record reporter, who will provide commentary on clothing fashions. Background music will be furnished by Norman Krumer at the organ.

Among the local models participating are Yelda Taylor, Theresa Evans, Judi Steele, Loretta Hylla, Ann Rutledge, Sandra Hickman, Phyllis Crews, Cathy Coyle, Valerie Grzywacz, Barbara Long, Janet Line, Marlene Reider, Carol Stucke, Julie Davis, Nellie Nicol, Dolores Rozicki, Loretta Tobin, Carlene Miller, Nona Jarvis, Judi Kismar, Gay Rush, Sharon Hodshire, Theresa Staskiewicz and Sharon Turnbaugh.

In conjunction with "National Beauty Salon Week" observations this week, groups of association members will visit the Maryville Orphanage and the Madison County Nursing Home, where individual operators will wash, cut, curl and style the hair of youngsters and the senior citizens.

The local association, chartered in 1963, has 75 members. Officers include Earl Parsons, president; Mrs. Rosalie Jenkins, first vice-president; Mrs. Sara Duiko, second vice-president; Miss Joanne Prevett, secretary; Mrs. Margaret Barloff, treasurer; and Mrs. Julia Dant, financial secretary.

Committee chairmen for the show include Mrs. Joy Hutchinson and Mrs. Betty McBrian, executive co-chairmen; Stanley Coleman, decorations; Parsons, stage settings; Mrs. Carol Kiefer, public relations; Miss Brenda Margulen, advertising; Earl Tucker, programs; Mrs. Sharon Lenzi, gifts; Mrs. Julia Dant, refreshments; Mrs. Jenkins, refreshments; and Mrs. Judy Broshaw, tickets. Mrs. Dorothy Line is heading the institutional welfare project.

More than 25 operators from 16 local beauty salons will present the new hair-styling trends at the show, Mrs. Line said. Participating shops include Colonial Beauty Shop; Twins Beauty Salon; La Femme; Carol's Coiffure; Julie's Salon of Beauty; The Earl-Carl; The Pines; Modern Beauty Shop; Babe's Salon of Beauty; Sara's Beauty Shop; the Carousel Salon; Andre's Beauty Shop; Earl's; and Ruth Ann's Beauty Shop.

Other than those named, shop owners and operators entered in the show, include Mrs. Marcela Tucker, Ruth Ann Long, Mrs. Margaret Tinsley, Mrs. Kay Jeff, Mrs. Dorothy Lindsey, Mrs. Mary Ann Andre, Mrs. Pat Dickey and Misses Pat Whaley, Mry Blinks and Brenda Fultz.

GC Parents to Attend 3-Day College Program

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Senak, 3238 Franklin avenue, will attend a parents' weekend Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Fontbonne College, St. Louis, with their daughter, Miss Paula Senak, who is a sophomore at the liberal arts college.

The weekend events will begin with a performance of "Ah Wilderness" Friday at 8:15 p.m. The play will be repeated Sunday evening, under the direction of Don Garner, artist-in-residence at Fontbonne College.

A parents' institute will begin Saturday at 2 p.m. with a "College Bowl," a general information contest between seniors and juniors. An open house on the campus with religious and lay faculty on hand to greet the parents also will be held Saturday following the institute sessions.

BoY Admits Purse Theft At Venice Residence

A Venice boy, 17, has admitted the theft of a purse from the home of Charles Wells, 625 Jefferson avenue, last Thursday night, Police Chief Frank DeWitt reported Tuesday. He said the case has been referred to Madison county juvenile authorities.

The purse, from which the boy admitted taking two $20 bills and a $5 bill, was stolen from a kitchen table in the Wells home. The boy told officers he was walking down the alley, saw a light in the kitchen and opened the back door, taking the purse from the table. He said he took out the money and put the purse by a nearby garage. The money has been returned, Chief DeWitt said.

No Property Settlement

Mrs. Margaret Hill of Collinsville, formerly of Madison, who recently obtained a divorce from Dale Hill, former publisher of the Press-Record, claimed this week that there was no property settlement as indicated earlier.

Heart Diseases Cause 57% of County Deaths

Diseases of the heart and blood vessels were responsible for 119 of 205 deaths in Madison county during the last calendar year for which statistics are available, it was announced over the weekend by W. Kenneth Grubb, a field director of the Illinois Heart Association.

This was 57% of the total of all deaths, he said, and compares with a current national toll of 54% attributed to these diseases.

"Nationally," Grubb said, "the overall economic cost of heart disease has been placed at $4 billion yearly, or about $21 per person."

The Heart Association currently is conducting its fund-raising campaign in the Quad-Cities. Mrs. Margaret Roberts of Granite City is general chairman.

Plan to buy business property?

Be sure to include title insurance in the deal.
The property you buy has probably changed hands many times. And every change of ownership increased the possibility of a defect in the chain of title—an error in a recorded document, an unknown heir of a previous owner, a possible forgery of an earlier deed—or any number of such claims which may now exist against the property you purchase.
Why add these risks to all the others that are a normal part of doing business? A Title Insurance policy from Chicago Title and Trust Company takes the risk out of owning real estate.

Chicago Title and Trust Company provides the kind of rapid, efficient service that only the company with 119 years of experience in Illinois real estate titles can offer — with the safety that can only come from the company with the largest financial assets available to protect you against loss.

Exclusive from Buster Brown

A new kind of shoe that lets children "feel like they're going barefoot with shoes on"

Simon J. Wikler, a podiatrist from Florida, believes that the healthiest thing for growing feet is to go barefoot.

So he set about to create a shoe which would allow children to "feel like they're going barefoot with shoes on." A shoe which would provide the protection tender young feet need, and at the same time allow growing toes all the necessary room to spread and flex so foot muscles and ligaments can develop freely.

The result of his work is the unusual, patented Wikler Shoe by Buster Brown. Distinctive in its wide, fan-shaped toe design, its remarkable softness, its complete flexibility. Investigate it soon for your child

State Protects Health and Life Of Youngsters

Several of the many ways in which Illinois is moving to protect the health and life of its youngsters were described this week by Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health.

In the department's program for preservation of life among the very young, emphasis is placed on the care of babies born too soon. Each year about 1000 such babies are cared for in the state's six premature centers. Since the majority of accidental poisoning cases occurs among pre-school age children, the department promotes programs aimed at alerting parents to the hazards of poisoning in the home, Dr. Yoder said. It also promotes and supports poison control information and treatment centers throughout the state.

The department cooperates with local health and school officials to extend and improve vision screening to locate children who need a complete eye examination by an eye doctor. It trained 22 visionometric technicians during 1965.

Active emphasis also has been placed on hearing conservation programs and 14 health departments are now participating in this part of the statewide program.

"The future strength of our state is built on the foundation of the good health of our children," Dr. Yoder said.

VFW Sets Up Mental Health Study Plan

Alton State Hospital has been chosen by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Illinois, as a study site to determine ways in which the organization can help in mental health pursuits.

The pilot project is the first of its kind in the state. James McClellan, Wood River, has been appointed liaison officer for the hospital.

The action is in line with a recent resolution approved by the VFW Council of Administration at Olney recently endorsing a zone-centered health program and special assistance to mental health agencies and interested lay groups in early and effective diagnosis and treatment of mental illness.

McClellan met recently with Dr. Abraham Simon, superintendent of the hospital; Frank Davis, hospital service officer, and Ira D. Cravens, chief veterans' service officer of Springfield, touching upon project areas to be considered for early action with respect to fulfilling the VFW program under McClellan's guidance. He will provide liaison between the hospital and 43 posts in the 17-county East St. Louis mental health zone.

Hospital Chosen for Administrative Work

From the Order of Preachers, Sister Philomena is a graduate of St. Mary's College, Xavier, Kans., and has served previously at St. Catherine Hospital at Garden City, Kans.

I Am Your Telephone
(Color Me Helpful)

I run your errands. I carry your voice to friends—around town or around the world—quickly and easily. I bring you the familiar voice of your loved ones. I let you shop from your easy chair. Nothing else quite compares with me. In a thousand and two ways, I save steps, time, and money for you. I am your telephone. Color me helpful. Color me a real bargain.

And color me better today than ever before.
